THE CHIEFTAINS EARN HIGHEST CHART DEBUT IN THE US IN THEIR 50-YEAR HISTORY WITH 'VOICE OF AGES'

The Chieftains' scored the highest chart debut in their 50-year history with 'Voice of Ages' (Hear Music/Concord), hitting number 12 on Billboard's Top Current Albums and number 17 on The Billboard 200.

The LA Times ran a Calendar Section cover story this week featuring an in-depth interview with band leader Paddy Moloney: <http://lat.ms/w2Dx3Q>

Raves for 'Voice of Ages' have called the album "killer" (Rolling Stone) and "instantly compelling" (Esquire).

A Q&A in the New York Times. http://www.nytimes.com/2012/02/16/arts/music/the-chieftains-paddy-maloney-prepares-groups-golden-jubilee.html?_r=2&ref=arts

A feature story in BILLBOARD, Feb. 25th, 2012

The Chieftains are on tour now, culminating in a special St. Patrick's Day celebration at New York's Carnegie Hall.
