

THE POGUES: 30 Years

Sämtliche Studioalben plus unveröffentlichte Live-Aufnahmen mit Joe Strummer in einer 8-CD-Box!

VÖ: 20.12.2013

Combining the spirit of Punk with traditional Irish Folk music, The Pogues were one of the most radical bands of the 1980's. Their instantly recognizable and politically tinged music helped them achieve 5 consecutive top 20 albums in the UK as well as producing the hit single 'Fairytale of New York' which is widely regarded as the greatest Christmas song of all time.

To celebrate the band's 30 years together, Rhino UK are releasing this stunning career spanning Boxset comprising all their studio albums as well as an unreleased live concert from 1991 when Joe Strummer was fronting the group.

Key Points:

- 'Red Roses For Me' remixed from the original multi-track tapes by Nick Robins
- 'Peace and Love' remixed from the original multi-track tapes by Steve Lillywhite
- 'The Pogues with Joe Strummer Live in London' released for the first time in its entirety (3 tracks were featured on the 'Look Them Straight in the Eye and Say... Pogue Mahone')
- All other albums will feature the 2004 re-mastered audio
- Albums are housed in a clamshell box featuring gatefold wallets with the original vinyl artwork.
- All studio albums do NOT contain the 2004 bonus tracks.
